Disclaimer: Free Shaping Camp was founded on positive training principles. Therefore, it is our policy that clients and staff alike in this building and on these premises or wherever Free Shaping Camp is held use positive training methods.

Not all dogs are appropriate for a camp setting and program. If management decides that your dog needs additional skills prior to participating or is not a suitable candidate for camp, management reserves the right to decline his/her continued attendance.

Any individual who engages in conduct with respect to their dog, or another participant's dog or person that is deemed inappropriate by management may be asked to leave the premises. Additionally, if management perceives a participant's training behavior or mannerism as inhumane, abusive or hostile, that individual may be asked to leave the premises.

Refund policy. In the event that you are asked to leave camp or cannot attend each day of camp for which you have signed up, management reserves the right to deny a refund or pro rate a portion of your fees, as management deems appropriate.

Make checks payable to: Positive Motivation Dog Training and mail to: 34 Lakeview Ave., Blairstown, NJ 07825
Confirmations and other information will be sent out 1 month prior to camp. Hotel info is on the website under directions and details. FMI: pam@positivedogs.com or www.positivedogs.com or call 908-459-5244

I understand that dog training can occasionally be a risky undertaking for both participants and spectators. In case of any harm, damage or injury that happens to me or is caused by me, my relatives, my dog or my property during this event, I agree not to hold liable Pamela Dennison, LIV, LLC, Positive Motivation Dog Training, their tenants, invited guests, clients or any of their agents working on their behalf. By signing this form, I also agree to all of the terms listed above.
